

Lorenda Fyrn Cianci

December 12, 1946 - October 3, 2015

On Dec. 12 1946, Carl D. Austin and Victoria Warfield Austin gave birth to their precious daughter, Lorenda Fyrn Austin Cianci, in Berkeley, CA.

The Family moved to Ojai, CA where she enjoyed an idyllic childhood of dolls, dress up, kittens, novel reading and friends. Lorenda loved to laugh with friends and especially her family. She is survived by her mother, Victoria Austin and brother, Benny Austin, partner Kathy Murray and children Jesse, Garrett, Elliott, Autumn and Josie Austin.

In Jan 1966, she married her college sweetheart, Mats Clarin. Together they graduated from Ventura Community College in June of 1966. After college they moved to Sweden to start their family.

Lorenda lived in Sweden for 10 years. She worked for Scandinavian Airlines as a translator. She gave birth to her beloved children, Tammy L. A. Clarin Olsson and the late M. Stefan Clarin. Lorenda is survived by her daughter, Tammy Olsson, husband, Niclas Olsson, and children, Madicken, Lucas, Tea and Fabian.

After returning to the United States, Lorenda secured a job with the U. S. Forest Service where she worked for the next 17 years. Lorenda met the late Harry Cianci at the Forest Service. In Sept. 1984 they married and combined their families for the next 16 years. Lorenda is survived by her step children Linda Cianci Leslie, husband, Michael Leslie and children, Ardan and Liam Leslie and son, Nick Cianci and children, Dylan, Samantha and William.

Marrying Andy Francis in 2005 and moving to Medford, OR. to retire, Lorenda continued to enjoy her kittens, reading and enjoyment of flowers. Lorenda gently passed in Medford, OR. On Oct. 3, 2015.
