

Lucile Cecille Peterson

February 8, 1950 - February 19, 2020

Longtime Montague resident Lucile Cecille Peterson passed away on February 16, 2020 in Redding. She was 70 years old.

Lucile was born on February 8, 1950 in France to John and Lucienne Burton. She grew up in England. As a military wife, she traveled to many countries, including France, England, Germany and Belgium. After moving to Siskiyou County and settling down, Lucile was a nurse, caring for many. She worked at Beverly Manor, IHS and in private healthcare. She enjoyed crocheting, hanging out with family members, and she always watched Hannity on FoxNews. She liked rock and country music, and dancing.

Lucile is survived by four children, Mark, Paul and Michael Peterson and Beverly Muelrath; six siblings, Charlie, John, Arthur, Rosie, Claire and Elizabeth; five grandchildren, two great grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by a daughter, Julieanne Peterson in 2012, and a sister, Lillian.

A Celebration of Life will be held on Saturday, March 21, 2020 at 12:00 Noon at the Montague Methodist Church.
