

M. "Mickey" Clayton Niblack

May 26, 1927 - November 1, 2011

Longtime Mount Shasta resident M. Clayton "Mickey" Niblack passed away November 1, 2011 at his home in Mount Shasta with his family at his side. He was 84 years old.

Mickey was born May 26, 1927 in Grainfield, Kansas to Marvin and Iva Niblack. He was raised and attended school in Denver, Colorado. It was there that he met and later married his wife, Phyllis. After a short stint in the U.S. Navy, Mickey went to work for DuPont, and worked there for 35 years in Denver, Seattle and later the San Francisco Bay Area. After he retired, the family moved to Mount Shasta. Mickey enjoyed fishing, golfing and working with wood. He was especially proud of making wooden banks, many with a postal box door.

Mickey is survived by his wife, Phyllis; his three daughters, Glenda Lucas, Suellen Messenger and Annette Walter; three brothers, six grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

No services are planned. Memorial contributions may be made to Mercy Hospice, 914 Pine Street, Mount Shasta, CA 96067. Girdner Funeral Chapel is in charge of arrangements.
