

Margaret Lorraine Kay

January 20, 1928 - October 27, 2013

Our loving mother, Margaret Lorraine Kay, passed on October 27, 2013 at 1:07 p.m. after a long battle with Alzheimer's. She was born on January 20, 1928 in Baker, Oregon as the middle triplet along with her sisters, Mary Ellen and Mildred Lynette, to adoring parents William Warsaw and Ada Knowles Gray. She is survived by 3 daughters: Karen Mitchell and her husband Tom, grandchildren Jennifer, Michelle and her husband Brian, Forrest, Adam and his wife Amy, Brent, Logan and Elliott, and great-grandchildren Jake, Jack, Abby, Matt and June; Cindy Fernandes and her husband Frank, grandchildren Desiray and her fiancé Mikey, Jason and his fiancée Jessica, Danielle and Brandy and great-grandchildren Trissten, Bailee Jo and Kyler; Lisa Brown and grandchildren Michael and his wife Jodi, Melissa and her husband Dwaine, and Marshal and his sweetheart Cierra and great-grandchildren Dyllan, Trinity, Christian, Lil-D and Reese. She also leaves many dear nieces, nephews and cousins who enriched her life.

She was a life-long member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints and a descendant of Mormon pioneers. After leaving Baker when she was 12, she and her family moved to California where she spent the majority of her time raising her family, working and enjoying life. She was an accomplished violinist and loved to sing. Her greatest joy was her family and she was our treasure.

She was laid to rest on November 1, 2013 beside her father at Hillcrest Cemetery in La Grande, Oregon. She was our best friend, funny to the end and left this earth with "Count Your Blessings" on her lips. We will miss her blue eyes and sweet smile immensely.
