

Marguerite Elaine Skeahan

December 25, 1925 - March 24, 2020

Marguerite Elaine Skeahan, 94, of Klamath River passed away peacefully of natural causes at Skylark Assisted Living in Ashland on March 24, 2020. A Celebration of Life service is planned to take place at a future date.

Marguerite was born December 25, 1925 in Fort Jones to Roy Earl Hammer & Mary Burcell in the old Willard Store on Main Street in Fort Jones. She was raised in Scott Valley, attended Fort Jones Elementary and graduated from Etna High School in 1943.

She married Mike Skeahan on November 9, 1948 in Medford OR, who himself passed on Sept 12, 2009.

Marguerite was proud of her indian heritage and was an elder of the Karuk Tribe. She was a loving mom who loved spending time with her family and enjoyed crocheting blankets for all of her family and sang Hummoo to all of her grandchildren (great, and great great) when they were babies. Marguerite also took pleasure from completing crossword puzzles.

She had a wonderful fulfilling life, even going to Mexico with Ginger, Michael, Jim, Beth, Robert, Nic and Josie. She really enjoyed the margarita's on the beach.

Marguerite is survived by her daughters; Ginger (Michael) and Mary (Dave), brothers; Bill (Judy), Roy (Linda), Don (Rhonda), 11 grandchildren, 25 great-grandchildren, 6 great-great-grandchildren.

Those who preceded Marguerite in death include her parents Roy Earl Hammer and Mary Burcell, son; Clifford Mables, brother; Fredrick McBride, sister; Mary Ann Freshour.

The family asks that memorial donations be made to Madrone Hospice 255 Collier Cir. Yreka, CA 96097.
