

Marjorie A. "Nona" Luper

April 25, 1931 - November 17, 2010

Marjorie A. Luper, "Nona", passed away peacefully in her home in Yreka on November 17 2010, surrounded by her loving daughters.

Marge was born on April 25, 1931 in Fayetteville, Arkansas to Willie M. and Katheryn Sutton Logue. She was a long time member of the Sweet Adelines and a member of the Yreka Seventh Day Adventist Church.

She was a devoted mother and Nona to her grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her infant son Doyle M. Luper, daughter Alana L. Shaw, and sister Wilna June Jones. She is survived by her daughters Kathryn S. Baumann, Perri L. Thompson, and Mary Anne Luper, niece Juana P. Wells, grandchildren Kandace and Craig Keno, William and Kerry Koenig, Peter A. Baumann and Talia Squires, Robert A. Baumann and Stormi Geddings, Michael Thompson, and Charlotte and Nolan Wilson, great nephews Jerold V. Paxton, and Gabriel and Samantha Paxton, great grandchildren Kyrra S. Keno, Cade A. Keno, Trevor J. Koenig, Ryan A. Koenig, Michael Diego Thompson, Gage O. Wilson, Silas O. Wilson, and Alana L. Wilson, great great nephews David D. Vongehr, Axl Van Paxton, and great great niece Maryn L. Paxton. Nona loved and was loved by many, and had a special place in her heart for Jim Johnson and his family. Though her journey was not easy, her faith never faltered and her heart never surrendered. She was our courage and inspiration.

There will be a private interment for the family at a later date. Girdner Funeral Chapel is in charge of arrangements.
