

Mary Blyth Hiatt

July 7, 1954 - January 23, 2026

Mary Wanlass Hiatt, age 71, passed away peacefully on Friday, January 23, 2026, in Etna, California, following a short and courageous battle with cancer. She was surrounded by love and faith at the close of a life defined by devotion to God, family, and music.

Mary was born on July 7, 1954, in Shelley, Idaho, to Leslie and Rayola Wanlass. Her childhood was marked by rich and varied experiences, as she grew up in several places around the world, including New Zealand; Huntington Beach, California; Toquerville, Utah; and Idaho Falls, Idaho. These experiences shaped her steady character, deep appreciation for people, and lifelong sense of purpose.

Mary devoted her life to her family as the mother of ten children, a role she embraced wholeheartedly. She found great joy in being at home raising her children and nurturing a household rooted in love, faith, and firm values. Music was another central thread of Mary's life. A gifted pianist, she taught piano lessons for most of her adult years, blessing countless students with both musical skill and quiet encouragement. Later in life, she began composing and publishing her own music and produced multiple albums of her original compilations—a lasting expression of her creativity and testimony.

On November 2, 1973, Mary married the love of her life, Richard John Hiatt, in the Idaho Falls LDS Temple. Together they built a life centered on faith and family, and were blessed with ten children—six daughters and four sons: Noelle (Travis) McKay, Joshua (Jennifer) Hiatt, Kayleen (Brett) Washburn, Adriel

(Chris) Jenkins, Jennifer (Michael) Kennett, Laurel (Joe) West, Lindsay (John) Labate, Jordan (Carly) Hiatt, Jarom (Annaleisa) Hiatt, and Jared Hiatt. She was also the proud grandmother of 37 grandchildren, each of whom held a special place in her heart.

Mary was a faithful member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, where she served in many callings throughout her life. Her faith in Jesus Christ was central to who she was. She lived with quiet conviction and was known for her unwavering integrity. One of her often-quoted sayings- "What's right is right, and what's wrong is wrong"-reflected her steady moral compass and lifelong commitment to truth.

Above all, Mary was a loving wife, mother, grandmother, sister, and friend. She cherished time with her children and grandchildren, loved sitting by her backyard swimming pool, and took great joy in tending her flowers and trees. Her home was a place of peace, music, and belonging.

Mary was preceded in death by her parents, Leslie and Rayola Wanlass; her brother, Jeremi; her sisters Emily and Cecily; her daughter, Noelle McKay; and her son, Jared Hiatt.

She is survived by her devoted husband, Richard, eight of her children, and her 37 grandchildren, who will carry forward her legacy of faith, love, and righteousness.

Funeral services will be held on Friday, January 30, 2026, at 10:00 a.m. at the Etna LDS Chapel, with committal to follow in Etna Cemetery. A viewing for family and friends will precede the service at 9:00 a.m. at the church. A Zoom link will also be available for those unable to attend in person.

Mary's life was one of quiet strength, deep faith, and enduring love. Her influence will continue to be felt in the lives she shaped, the music she shared, and the testimony she lived every day.

“ I didn't know Mary for a long time, just a few short weeks; But from the first day I met her I knew that If we had met years ago , we would of been great friends. She was so warm and welcoming and overwhelmingly Kind. I met her husband Richard and some of her children and you could see the loving effects she had on all of them. I am so very sorry that I missed her service, I did not know the date. I will think of her often and smile!!! Nurse Susan
