

Mavis Marie Laskey

June 10, 1937 - September 30, 2013

Mavis Marie Laskey, beloved mother and grandmother, passed away on Monday, September 30, 2013 peacefully at Shasta View Nursing Center in Weed, California. Her daughter Linda, son-in-law Terry and good friend Donna were at her side.

Mavis was born in Cutler, Maine on June 10, 1937 to Loring and Helena (Dennison) Griffin. She was raised in Cutler with her two brothers and eight sisters. On August 16, 1958, Mavis married Wayne Laskey in East Machias, Maine. Mavis and Wayne had two children, Linda and Gary, in 1959 and 1960. She lived her life in Lubec until she moved to Yreka, California in 2002 to be with her daughter and her family.

Mavis was employed for several years at Look Canning Company in Cutler, Maine, a processing plant for canning crab and lobster. In 1968, Mavis fell victim to severe medical problems which left her partially paralyzed. Despite these difficulties, she led a productive life taking great care of her children, her home, and enjoying the visits she received from family and friends.

Mavis was preceded in death by her parents, Loring and Helena; her husband, Wayne; five sisters, Mildred, Gertie, Marion, Sonja and Arlene; and two brothers, Lowell and Gardner. She is survived by her daughter Linda and son-in-law Terry of Yreka, California; son Gary and daughter-in-law Penny of Lubec, Maine; six grandchildren, Patrick, Melanie, Jonathan, Isaiah, Barrett and Brennan; three great grandchildren, Ethan, Taylor and Gavin; three sisters, Catherine, Francis and Norma, and many nieces and nephews.

No services are planned at this time. The family would like to sincerely thank the wonderful staff at Shasta View Nursing Center for the love, compassion and care shown to their mother and grandmother.
