

Mildred Emma Riemann Baker

March 30, 1922 - June 25, 2019

Mildred Baker, 97 years old, passed away quietly on June 25, 2019. She was born March 30, 1922 in Morrisville, Pennsylvania.

Mildred graduated from San Jose State University and was an elementary school teacher. She loved teaching and organizing science fairs.

She married Ellis Mann Baker in 1946 and moved to Kansas where he went to college. They were blessed with twin boys, Jonathan and James. Ellis's career took them to California where Nancy joined the family when the boys were fourteen. Mildred and Ellis lived in Nigeria for seven years and took many trips to different parts of the world, including Europe, China, and Australia. A daughter, Kathy completed the family in 1967. Mildred enjoyed reading, travel, and socializing with her many friends.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Ellis Baker, and her son, James Carl Baker. Mildred is survived by one son, Jon Baker (wife Debbie Baker), and two daughters, Dr. Nancy Baker of McGill, Nevada, and Kathy Echavarria (husband Benjamin Echavarria) of Gardnerville, Nevada. She had four children, eleven grandchildren and eighteen great-grandchildren.

Mildred was a beloved wife, mother, grandmother and great grandmother who lived her faith in God. A service will be held at 11:00 am on August 3, 2019 at the Etna United Methodist Church.

Previous Events

Celebration of Life

AUG 3. 11:00 AM (PT)

Etna Methodist Church
137 Diggles Street
Etna, CA 96027