

Newman "Lee" Pope II

July 24, 1955 - April 5, 2015

Longtime Siskiyou County resident, Newman "Lee" Pope II passed away unexpectedly on Sunday, April 5, 2015. He was 59 years old.

Lee was born to Jack and Doris Pope in Roswell, New Mexico on July 24, 1955. On June 15, 1974, Lee married the love of his life, Ann Kerr, in Happy Camp. The couple has remained married for the last 41 years.

Lee was a man of many talents and hobbies. In his younger days, Lee enjoyed scuba diving and later was interested in piloting remote control helicopters, and he always enjoyed playing his guitar. Lee made a career, however, out of gold mining in the Sierra's for FMC and along the Klamath River.

Lee was preceded in death by his mother, Doris. He is survived by his wife of nearly 41 years, Ann Pope; his father, Jack Pope of Albuquerque, NM; his two sons, Michael and Matthew Pope of Fort Jones and Montague; his brother, Jim (Anita) Pope of Junction City, OR.; his sisters, Jackie (Wally) Imfeld of Montague, Lisa (Tim) Gueldner of Grants Pass, OR., Rhonda Prando and Gayle Torres, both of New Mexico; six grandchildren, and one great grandchild whom is on the way.

At this time, no services are to be held for Lee.

Tribute Wall

“ Missing you dad ”

Matthew pope - February 21, 2016 at 12:26 AM