

Norma Eileen Farmer

December 18, 1924 - December 16, 2012

Longtime Siskiyou County resident Norma Eileen Farmer passed away December 16, 2012 in Yreka. She was 87 years old.

Norma was born December 18, 1924 in Verwood, Saskatchewan, Canada to Theodore and Ina Wenaus. She grew up in Ashland, Oregon and graduated from Ashland High School. In 1946, Norma married Robert Farmer, and the couple moved to Siskiyou County. Norma worked at Jackson Street School in the cafeteria for many years. Norma and Robert enjoyed square dancing. They were very active in special education and were strong supporters of Great Northern in Redding.

Norma is survived by her children, Gene, Steve, Dale and Tami Farmer; two sisters, Doreen Landing and Eunice Surber; five grandchildren, Lisa Hottendorf, Nichol Lindberg, Cicely Muelrath, Michelle Maynard-Ness and David Maynard; and eight great grandchildren. Norma was preceded in death by her husband of 57 years, Robert Farmer, and a son Mickey Farmer.

A memorial service will be held Thursday, December 27, 2012 at 11:00 AM at the Hornbrook Community Bible Church in Hornbrook, California. Interment will follow in the Henley-Hornbrook Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions can be made to the Special Olympics at www.sonc.org.
