

Pamela A. Stock

April 5, 1945 - March 1, 2012

Pamela A. Stock passed away March 1, 2012 of a tragic car accident. She was 67 years old.

Pamela was born Pamela A. Petit on April 5, 1944. She was born to Arthur Petit and Helen Hordensky-Petit. She worked for General Dynamics for many years. She married Darrell L. Stock, Sr. in 1979. Her husband Darrell also died of injuries sustained in the car accident. Pamela was a member of the Red-Hat society.

Pamela studied architecture and fine arts and graduated with an Associates degree.

Pamela loved gardening, and had a special passion for gladiolas, lilacs, and vegetables that she could prepare for her family. Her succotash recipe was always a hit around the holidays. Her hobbies included collecting paper weights, collecting sea glass and rooster ornaments. She loved the ocean and could sit for hours watching the waves and listening to the sea. Sometimes she even fed a seagull that stopped by for an occasional snack; she affectionately named him "johnathan".

Pamela is survived by her step children: Darrell L. Stock, Jr. of South Jordan, UT, Cheryl A. Stock-Tadeo of Paradise, CA, and Richard W. Csubak of Sterling, CT. Her step-grandchildren are Joaquin E. Stock-Tadeo, Rebecca J. Stock-Tadeo, Morris Z. Stock-Csubak, and Jeremiah G. Stock-Csubak. She was a resident of Ledyard, CT for 10 years and then retired and lived within the Siskiyou Mountains near the scenic Klamath River in CA. She also lived in Crescent City, CA.

The graveyard service will be at the Happy Camp cemetery at 1 p.m.,
Wednesday, March 7, 2012, at Happy Camp, CA.
