

Patricia Carol Griggs

May 23, 1933 - March 3, 2016

Longtime Etna resident Patricia Carol Griggs passed away at her home on March 3, 2016. She was 82 years old.

Pat was born on May 23, 1933 in Grass Valley, California to Bud and Waive Ducotey. She was an insurance secretary for many years. She loved sewing and her cats, but especially loved her family. She was a beloved mother, grandmother and great grandmother. Whenever there was an outing to town, she loved going to lunch.

Pat is survived by her daughters, Kathy Christ and husband Dennis, and Sherri Christ and husband David, all of Etna; a step-daughter, Linda Friga and husband Dick of Southern California; a sister, Opal Main of Grenada; grandchildren Carrie Christ, Daniel Christ (Becca), Vincent Christ (Sara), Ben Christ (Saundra), Lizzie Christ (Dane), Kellie Williams (Cedric) and Jim Friga (Molly); and ten great grandchildren. Pat was preceded in death by her husband of forty years, James Griggs, in 2009.

Private family services will be held.

“ Pat was the first person to welcome our family to the neighborhood. It was very comforting knowing I had another set of eyes on my rambunctious boys. Pat made us laugh with her humor and attitude towards life. She was a strong, independent lady that showed a lot of class. Until we meet again, in our hearts forever. You will be missed. Deepest sympathies to her entire family.
