

Phyllis Joyce Stetzel

April 29, 1926 - September 14, 2014

Longtime Siskiyou County resident, Phyllis Stetzel, passed away on September 14, 2014, in Medford, Oregon at the age of 88.

Phyllis was born on April 29, 1926 to Arthur and Rosella Warner on their family farm in Mapleton, North Dakota. She was the youngest of twelve children.

During World War II, Phyllis worked for the military in Anchorage, Alaska as a meteorologist, air traffic controller, and communicator with the Pacific theater. When the war was over, she worked in the aircraft industry in Los Angeles. In 1964, Phyllis moved to Northern California and went to work for the United States Forest Service in Yreka. It was there that she met her husband of the past 46 years, Dave Stetzel.

Phyllis loved the outdoors, and she loved to cook. She was very dedicated to her husband and friends, and she will be missed by everyone that knew her. Phyllis was preceded in death by her parents, and her 11 siblings. She is survived by her husband, Dave, and many nieces and nephews.

A Graveside Funeral Service will be held for Phyllis on Monday, September 22, 2014 at 10:00 a.m. at the Evergreen Cemetery in Yreka. Girdner Funeral Chapel is assisting the family, and online condolences may be made at www.girdnerfuneralchapel.com.
