“ Cindy,

I just heard as to the passing of Randy. I still see him in my mind as the kid playing out at Billy Wilson's, as well as the young man on the gymnastics team in high school.

Our heart felt thoughts & prayers go out to You & Your Family.

He didn't want to listen to sad or stupid gossip he was a positive man. Everyone that I knew loved Randy. He was an awesome individual no human compared to him I'm not joking he was nice to everyone that ive known. And the good die young. Its truth. Everyday that went by I had to see him just to laugh. Cause he was good hearted man. People say what they want but truth is truth...why him? I don't get that. My life is not gonna be the same. Its not... it sucks but there's not a God darn thing I can do about it but I will die one of these days n I will be with my best friend forever. My world is not the same without him.
