

Richard Loren Young

June 29, 1939 - July 12, 2021

Richard Loren Young, 82, peacefully passed away at the Madrone Hospice House in Yreka on July 12, 2021.

Richard was born June 29, 1939 to Loren and Harriett Young in Glendale, California. He graduated from Van Nuys High School and he treasured his friends, Del and Lois Schultz from his years growing up in the San Fernando Valley. Richard was a master of the piano, specializing in whimsical, honkytonk styles, belting out boogie-woogie tunes, and picking out melodies in his favorite key, E-flat.

Richard started his career as a firefighter for the Los Angeles Fire Department before becoming an attorney and practicing law for several decades in Yreka in Siskiyou County.

Richard is preceded in death by his parents, Loren Neece and Harriett (Oliphant) Young, both of Yreka. He is survived by his wife, Mary Jane Young; children: Heidi (Adnan) Young-Issa, Matthew Young, and step-daughter Lynsay Agravante; three grandchildren: Sarra, Layla, and Samira Issa; siblings Cathy (Phil) Young-McCullough, George (Sue) Young, and by many cousins, nieces, and nephews.

Richard was grateful to his wife, Mary Jane, for the loving care she gave to him.

No services are scheduled.
