

Robert Craig Davis

May 23, 1955 - January 7, 2022

Robert Craig Davis, commonly known as Bob and affectionately known as "Pop" to his children, passed away on January 7, 2022 in his Etna home. Bob was born to Phyllis Still and Robert W. Davis in Yreka on May 23, 1955. He graduated from Etna High School in 1972 and continued to live and work in the Scott Valley area for the entirety of his life.

His early years were spent living along the Salmon River in Cecilville before moving to Etna for his adolescence. He had a passion for sports throughout his formative years that continued into his adult life, both as a participant and later a fan. He loved nothing more than to cheer on his daughters in their athletic endeavors. Bob began working as a logger right out of high school and never ventured into another line of work. His profession aligned perfectly with his love for the wilderness and his other passion: hunting! While his occupation was tough, Bobby had a heart filled with love. This was most evident when he spoke to, and of, his daughters.

He is survived by his wife Gloria, his daughters Angie Madden (Rich Madden), Trinity Davis Jones (Dave Jones), Allison Davis (Brennan Kane), step-children Angela Walsh (Adam) and Zeke Jones (Marissa). He was blessed with many grandchildren: McKayla, Ada, Lila, Caden, Francis, Davis, Wesley, Evie and Elliot. He is also mourned by his siblings Debbie, Raelyn, Steve, numerous nieces and nephews, and his mother Phyllis Still. Bob was preceded in death by his father Robert W. Davis.

A celebration of life will be held on May 21st, 2022 at 1:00pm at the Etna City Park. Bobby's legacy will be carried on by all the people that knew and cared for him. There is, and never will be, anyone quite like Bobby Davis. He will be forever missed and never forgotten.
