

Robert "Bob" F. Attebery

September 16, 1924 - January 16, 2011

Robert F. "Bob" Attebery passed away in his home in Happy Camp on January 16, 2011 after a short illness.

Robert was born at Ferry Point, CA on September 16, 1924 to Archie Attebery and Louise (Southard) Attebery. His family moved to Happy Camp in 1939. At 18, Bob joined the Navy and served his time as a radar operator on an aircraft carrier in the Philippines and he was in several battles in that area.

Bob met and married Phyllis Beaver on May 16, 1947. They lived in Happy Camp until 1959, when they moved to Hyampom, CA. Bob and Phyllis spent sixty-two years of life together hunting, fishing, camping and taking care of nieces and nephews over the years. They moved back to Happy Camp in 2001. Phyllis preceded him in death on May 2, 2009.

Bob leaves behind two brothers and sister-in-laws, Archie (Abby) Attebery and his wife, Pauline (Sis) and Ben Attebery and his wife, Helen; a sister, Marian (Honey) Whitehouse all of Happy Camp. He also leaves numerous cousins, nieces and nephews. In addition to his wife, Phyllis, he was preceded in death by his parents, Archie and Louise Attebery, three sisters, Eva Moran, Gladys Taylor and Dorothy (Chuggy) Harrington. Services will be announced at a later date. Girdner Funeral Chapel is assisting the family.
