“ Wes and are saddened by this news. Wes worked in the trades with and around Bob off and on for years. When Bobby was doing the rock on the fireplaces at Lave Lakes ranch just outside Grenada, I met him for the first time. He had all the mortar faces laid out on plastic on the floor. They were awesome. He said they all went to someone else, but on his last day at work, after he cleaned up and left, Wes got in his own pickup to go home. Buckled into the seat belt on the passenger side was a whole bust. Shoulder up! He's sat out in our back garden now for 18 years. We named him Bob!!! So sorry for the family's loss. His talent was unique and he will be missed.
