

Robert Charles McClellan

July 2, 1938 - February 5, 2015

Robert McClellan passed away suddenly on February 5, 2015 at his home in Fort Jones, at the age of 76.

Robert was born in San Carlos, California to Charles and Edith McClellan on July 2, 1938. Robert attended Carlmont High School and moved to his home in Fort Jones in the late 70's.

Robert was an avid outdoors-man and wilderness guide; he loved to conduct pack trips by horseback into the California wilderness. He loved camping, fishing, Hunting and trapping. He was an accomplished outdoor and wildlife photographer and authored blogs called "Back-country Rambler" and "Just Ramblin Around with Bob Mc". Robert was a true outdoors-man; he was most at home in the mountains with his trusted horses and dogs. He shared his life and home with his beloved Airedale, "Bear". His love of the California wilderness is chronicled in his beautiful photography.

Robert was preceded in death by his parents. He is survived by his cousins, Kathy Smith, Carol Krusey, Edwin Krusey and Howard Krusey.

At this time, no services are planned. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to Northwest Airedale Terrier Rescue at 3235 Bonham St. South, Salem, OR 97302. NATR is assisting with the care and rehoming of Bear.

Tribute Wall

BG

“ I KNEW BOB FOR OVER FORTY YEARS HE WAS ONE OF A KIND.
BOB GYDESEN

BOB GYDESEN - March 04, 2015 at 02:44 PM

JJ

We will miss Bob's e-mails, stories and humor, visits to his mountain camp sites, but most of all his friendship. John and Pat Jackson

John & Pat Jackson - March 09, 2015 at 12:50 PM