

Roberta Louise Boring

August 9, 1928 - July 9, 2014

Roberta Louise Boring passed away on July 9, 2014 at her home in Happy Camp. She was 85 years old.

Roberta was born August 9, 1928 in Tulare to Hartzel and Ada Wilson. She attended college for a year before she married William “Fred” Boring in 1947. The couple made their home in Happy Camp and Hoopa for many years. Roberta and Fred ran several trading posts in Hoopa, Willow Creek and Orleans. Along with running the trading posts, Roberta also ministered to the people. She was a stained glass artist and an oil painter, and loved working with those mediums. Roberta was a past member of the Soroptimist International.

Roberta is survived by her husband of 67 years, Fred; two children, Jonothan Boring of Redding and Margaret Boring of New Jersey; four grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

No services are scheduled.

“ Roberta is one of my "Spiritual Moms". I will miss her & see her again in Heaven So kind & the most pious (in a good way) woman I have ever known. I can here her singing as she cooked meals in her home in Coffee Creek. Fred & Roberta have been & always will be my friends. God's blessings to her surviving loved ones.

“ Many fond memories of times spent with my sister-in-law. Her smile . . . the twinkle in her eyes . . . her love for helping people. Our loss, but her gain.
