

Rosalie Mae Kleaver

April 4, 1938 - September 29, 2017

Rosalie Mae Delmerico Kleaver died on September 29, 2017 at the age of 79 of a short illness. She was born April 4, 1938 in Brooklyn, NY to Frank and Margaret Mary Delmerico. Rosalie was a graduate of Tarrytown elementary and high schools. She was employed by AT&T in White Plains, NY in the corporate office following high school graduation. Rosalie and James Kleaver were married in Tarrytown, New York on April 16, 1961 and began their married life in Yreka. Rosalie was employed at Yreka High School until the birth of her daughter, Christine, in 1962. Son Daniel arrived in 1964. She was a member of Children's Home Society, was a 4H leader and was involved in the establishing of Yreka Co-op Nursery.

Rosalie enjoyed golf, gardening, bridge games and RV and other travel. She and Jim traveled to several countries over the years and visited every continent.

Rosalie was preceded in death by her parents, her husband James, and her daughter Christine. Her mother died when Rosalie was 7 years old, and she was raised by her father and other family members. She is survived by her son Daniel (Lisa and son Kevin), sister Marylyn McCormick, brother Frank Delmerico, both of New York state, and several nephews, nieces and cousins.

A private family inurnment will be held at a later date. At her request, there will not be a funeral service.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions can be made to Madrone Hospice House, 255 Collier Circle, Yreka.

Tribute Wall

MD

“ We raised our kids together on Lange Way. Shared many swim parties and cocktail hours. RV trips, dinners and just plain visiting; all great fun. Rose was a great mother and wife and Mary considered Rose to be her best friend. She will be dearly missed but she has moved on with Chris and Jim to help prepare for the rest of us. Love Mary and Errol DeRose

Mary DeRose - October 04, 2017 at 06:09 PM