

Roy Ellis Dye

June 1, 1920 - December 27, 2010

Roy Ellis Dye of Montague passed away peacefully at his home of natural causes on December 27, 2010.

Roy was born on June 1, 1920 in Los Angeles. He was proud to serve in the California Conservation Corps and served valiantly in World War II. He was an experimental machinist at Varian in Palo Alto for 25 years. He retired and moved to Montague with his wife in 1984, where they lived until his passing at the age of 90.

Roy is survived by his loving wife of 64 years, Ruth Mae (Currier) Dye, eldest son Daniel Dye, youngest daughter Pamela Grossnickle and youngest son Edward Dye. He leaves behind six grandchildren and five great grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his eldest daughter Susan Lori.

Throughout his life, Roy had many adventures abroad and in the country he served. His thirst for knowledge and the challenge of mastery enriched his life and those who knew him.

Funeral services will be held Monday, January 3, 2011 at 2:00 PM at Girdner Funeral Chapel.
