

Sandra Josephine McMains

July 27, 1943 - May 23, 2020

Sandra Josephine McMains, 76 year old Hornbrook resident, passed away on May 23, 2020 at Fairchild Medical Center in Yreka.

Sandra was born on July 27, 1943 in San Bernardino to Ramsey and Carola McMains. She grew up in San Bernardino, and attended Pacific High School. Sandra was the first woman bus driver for OmniTrans in San Bernardino. She worked for a lighting company for many years prior to moving to Siskiyou County. Sandra loved the Seattle Seahawks, and was an avid Donald Trump supporter. She loved anything that was red, white and blue. She enjoyed playing Texas Hold'em, singing and playing the piano. She made friends readily, and loved her cat. Sandra had a strong love for Jesus.

Sandra is survived by three children, Marilyn Borden of Dexter, Missouri, Deborah Young of Hornbrook and Robert Rutan Jr. of California; a sister, Marilyn McMains Jordan of Darrington, Washington; her close friend Edward "Sonny" Rhoades of Hornbrook; a niece, Stephanie Breault; a nephew, Kurt Cooper; eight grandchildren, 16 great grandchildren and one great great grandchild. Sandra was preceded in death by a daughter, Marlene Rutan.

A memorial service has been held.

Tribute Wall

JS

“ I was so lucky to meet and get to know this sweet lady. I was very saddened to hear of her passing. Love and prayers to her family.

Jean L Smith - June 01, 2020 at 06:33 PM

JK

“ Sandy was a very close friend. I worked with her at Kim Lighting where we became fast friends. She was one of a kind in many ways. My family was close to her also...to them, she was “crazy Aunt Sally”. their nick name for her. I will miss her tremendously, but am comforted she's with Jesus

Julia Kingery - May 29, 2020 at 08:10 PM

DC

Sandy Jo~ was a good friend of my parents, (Darrell and Jo Ann Chapman) and after meeting her (at poker of course) she soon became a friend of mine! I will never forget her kind heart, and crazy sense of humor...she could make you giggle like no other! She is loved, and will be missed by many! Fly free beautiful angel...fly free!
We love you Sandy Jo 💜
Debbie Castle ~

Debbie Castle - May 30, 2020 at 12:28 AM

TA

Much Love to Debbie, Sonny and family...
Sandy was a beloved friend...
Always had a smile, witty remark when you were in her company...
Loved playing poker! Back in the day, we played alot together..Good times always to be had....
She will be deeply missed...
She will always have a special place in my heart...

Tami - May 30, 2020 at 12:59 PM