

Sharon Lee Fiock Taylor

July 14, 1942 - May 11, 2014

SHARON LEE FIOCK TAYLOR Sharon was called to Heaven May 11, 2014, passing away at home in Macdoel, California. Sharon was born July 14, 1942 and raised in Yreka, California and graduated from Yreka High School, June 1960. Sharon worked at Macdoel Elementary School for many years as a Teacher's Aide and when opportunity knocked she took it and opened Sharon's Cafe. This was right down her alley; she was a very social person. Sharon's Cafe was the place where people gathered for their morning coffee, something great to eat, or just to catch up on the morning gossip! Sharon was very active in the Macdoel Community and she loved her town, but most of all Sharon loved her family, many of whom were not related, but still considered family. Sharon was "MOM" to many people. THANKS, MOM, FOR LOVING US ALL UNCONDITIONALLY!! Sharon leaves behind her Beloved Husband and Best Friend, Jim. Children, Teri, Michael, and James Hagedorn, Robert, David and Scotty Taylor. Grandchildren, Joshua and his wife Emily, Cory James, Kristen, Cindy, Emily, Jessica and Brandi. Great Grandchildren Hanna, Addison, Ashley, Aubrey, Kolte and many dear friends. A celebration of Sharon's life will be held at a later date this summer. Girdner Funeral Chapel is assisting the family.

“ Sharon always had a ready smile and a friendly place for all who knew her at her Café in Macdoel. I remember her being a TA at the Macdoel Grade School. All the kids loved her. And I remember all the great lunches we had at her Café when we would go there for lunch break at Wheeler Farms. She will be missed. Karen Wheeler Reeves
