June 15, 1952 - June 13, 2012

Sharon L. Whitman passed away on June 13, 2012 in Redding, CA. Sharon was born June 15, 1952 to David and Wilma Wilkinson. Raised in Prospect, OR she moved to Happy Camp at the age of 15 graduating from Happy Camp High in 1970. It was there she met Walt Whitman, fell in love and married November 15, 1969.

Sharon was a baptized member of the LDS Church and had also served on the board of the Happy Camp Cemetery. She enjoyed gardening, working in her yard where she grew beautiful flowers. Trips to the casino were fun times with Walt and friends! The best times for Sharon were when she could spend time with her grandchildren, who love her dearly and are so going to miss their Grandma.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Dave and Wilma, and her angelic granddaughter, Chloe. She leaves her devoted husband, Walt; her children, Alicia (Woody) of Somes Bar; Amy (Jack) of Cottonwood; her brother, Dave (Debbie) of Coos Bay; her sister, Patti (Fred) of Happy Camp. Sharon is also survived by her loving grandchildren, Kyle, Jack and Jacob of Cottonwood; Timothy, Virasur and Patricia of Somes Bar. Her extended family of numerous nieces and nephews also suffer the loss of their Aunt Sharon.

There will be a Celebration of Life on Saturday, June 23, 2012 at 1:00 p.m. at the River Park in Happy Camp. There will be a potluck lunch, please bring your favorite dish. Any favorite stories or memories you'd like to share would be much appreciated. In lieu of flowers the family requests donations to the Happy Camp Cemetery.

Sharon was a brave soul who fought long and hard at different phases of her short life. Let her be an inspiration to those left to mourn our loss of such wonderful lady.
