

Silvina "Sylvia" A. Logan

December 1, 1930 - February 28, 2018

Longtime Happy Camp resident Silvina Aubrey "Sylvia" Logan passed away on February 28, 2018 in Yreka. She was 87 years old.

Sylvia was born in Cottage Grove (below Happy Camp) on December 1, 1930 to Henry Calvin and Josephine Albers Aubrey, the 11th of 12 children and the last surviving child. She was sent to Sherman Indian School in Riverside along with her brothers, sisters, cousins and others from up and down the Klamath and Trinity rivers.

Sylvia lived for her children and served her Lord God and Creator. All of her life, she loved serving her God and going to church. She was a member of the Independent Indian Shaker Church of White Swan, Washington for 46 plus years. She was a strong prayer warrior that helped many asking for prayer and help. Church was Sylvia's center of the world. She lived to serve her God daily. She read the bible through several times. Her bible was her sword. She worshiped with many brothers and sisters in the Shaker faith who are legendary in California, Oregon, Washington and Canada. They rang their bells, sang and danced their way into our hearts and souls, and showered us with the Holy Spirit.

Sylvia is survived by four children: Desiree Martinez, Bonita Thom, Brenda Jenkins and Steven Marshall, all of Happy Camp, and many grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews and cousins. She was preceded in death by a son, Mike Logan.

Please join the family for her funeral service at 11:00 AM on Saturday, March 10, 2018 at the Karuk Community Center in Happy Camp. Interment will follow at the Aubrey Ranch Family Cemetery. A potluck will follow interment back at the Karuk Community Center.
