

Steven Robert Saari

July 17, 1957 - September 29, 2017

Steven Robert Saari, 60, passed on from this life on the afternoon of September 29, 2017 in his home in Yreka.

Steve was born on July 17, 1957 in Minneapolis, Minnesota to Robert R. and Lois (Ernst) Saari. He moved with his family as a teen to Longmont, Colorado. There, he discovered his talent for building and carpentry, and found his joy working in all aspects of the construction field.

In 1982, he married Gail Day and soon after had a son, Adam R. Saari. After a parting of ways in 1985, Steve followed his sister, Gina, and brother in law William Nelson, to Yreka. He grew to love the area and the people there, where he worked and lived out the remainder of his years.

Steve was a hard worker, he had a kind soul, and was always willing to lend a hand up to others less fortunate if he could. He made many acquaintances and good friends, many of whom he considered family. He will be sorely missed.

Steve is survived by his loving mother, Lois and step father, Harry McCabe, of Loveland, CO; his son, Adam Saari of the Portland area; sister, Gina Nelson, nephew Zackary Nelson and nieces Brece and Andrea Nelson and their children, all from Yreka.

“All the lives and loves that have passed before are waiting to take you home.
We will all miss you brother, be at peace.

Forever Yours,
Sis”
