“ It just seems like yesterday that I lost you mom I miss you and I love you so much. I know you were in a much better place in setting beside God but what I would give to have you sitting here at home with me and miss you mom

“ Tanya spending time with you was always a pleasure. I always knew what was on your mind as you would tell me openly. After losing my mom just over a year ago you sincerely helped to fill a void in my heart without even knowing it.

Some have thanked me for coming over and checking on you late in the evenings, no thanks was needed it was always a pleasure to come talk to you for a bit. I called you mom even though we are only two years apart, but it was ok with you and thanks. We were closer than most people give us credit for being or knowing even. We could talk about anything and everything and it was ok.

I love you and will always have a void in my heart for you too. Sure is hard to see to type with tears flowing down my face, tears of joy. As I know I will see you again as I know you are with Jesus. He has promised me a place there too and he lives in my heart also.

You made me laugh so many times with things you would pop off with. Like that was pretty stupid wasn't it. Or you are just a special kind of stupid aren't you. Yeah at times I guess I was, but you always spoke your piece regardless. Loved you for it sweetie and you made me laugh too.

Enjoyed sitting there and listening to the preachers you had on late at night too, sometimes I would catch something I sincerely needed to hear. To those that did not know you or get to know you they missed something special. Your love for the Lord was deep, your honesty went far, and your love for your family was endless. God Bless you my friend I can picture you in heaven watching over us all.

“ I miss you so very much Mom there is nothing in this world that could fill the void that I have in my heart. Not only are you my mom but you're also my best friend. When God gave us you he gave us the best woman in the world. I will keep you in my heart each and every day not a day will go by that I won't think of you love you and miss you. My every day of life will never be the same. But I am thankful no more suffering and no more pain. May you dancing with the angels and watch over us each and every day. I am thankful that I have your heart. I love and miss you so much Mom

“ Tanya, You may have left this world for a special place in the Lord's beautiful Heaven, You will always be thought of and Missed. Know you can spend your time with your parents, brother, and the special friends you have lost along your life's journeys. You will know will be able to breath without stuggling. The joy I have in my heart for the memories of the first time I meet you on the cotton farm in Arizona. The hard work you put out to raising your wonderful children . You always made me feel I was part of your family, And I thank You for that. I also want to Thank You for how you Loved My Boys. They always got excited when We mentioned we were going to your house, they were packed and ready to go before it was time to leave. Thank You and Love You. RIP TANYA.

“ Girl you will be missed. Tonya was one of those friends that no matter what kind of day you were having, she made you laugh. She would speak her mind and that's what I loved about her the most, you always knew where she stood on issues at hand. She had a heart of gold and will be sorely missed. Until we meet again girl, rest in peace.
