

Theodore "Theo" Jay Fisher

November 6, 1933 - June 1, 2012

Theodore Jay Fisher, 78, passed away June 1, 2012 at his home in Big Springs. Funeral services will be held Saturday, June 9, 2012 at 10:00 a.m. at Girdner Funeral Chapel in Yreka with burial to follow in the Little Shasta Cemetery in Little Shasta.

Theo was born November 6, 1933 in Minneapolis, Minnesota to Marjorie Ferguson and Theodore J. Fisher. He spent his early childhood in the greater Los Angeles area, having many crazy adventures. In 1949, he met the love of his life, Sherrie Batway. They were married in Las Vegas, Nevada in 1956. They made their home in Hollywood. From this union, four children were born: Vicki, Michelle, Samantha and Ted.

In 1972, the family moved to Big Springs where they built a home. Theo worked in construction, roofing, rebuilding V.W.'s and was a custom knife maker. He was an accomplished hunter and shooter and competition marksman. He enjoyed working up a perfect reload. He was also a car enthusiast, rebuilding V.W.'s and a "rat rod". Theo was a wonderful grandfather, father, husband and brother. His greatest joy was having family around. He will be greatly missed and forever loved.

Theo was preceded in death by his wife, Sherrie, in February of 2006. He is survived by his three daughters, Vicki Fisher, Michelle (Alan) Barrail and Samantha (Tim) Dedrick; his son, Ted (Tina) Fisher and nine grandchildren, Travis Marino, Daniel Griffin, Niki Barrail, Amanda, Emily, Katelyn and Jessica Dedrick and Cody and McKenzie Fisher. He is also survived by a brother, Ken Daniels; 2 sisters, Pat Whitton and Jackie "Sis" Christopherson; a sister-in-law, Pat Prince and many nieces and nephews.
