

Theresa H. Cutts

June 23, 1929 - June 30, 2010

Theresa H. Cutts, Theresa was born on June 23, 1929 in Wibaux, MT. to Moody and Rose Hillman. She grew up during the crash of Wall Street and the Great Depression. She used to say "I'm not cheap, just thrifty!" Thrift Stores were her favorite. For her it was a treasure hunt. She was married twice and leaves behind her son Tracy Kenny of Eugene, OR. and daughter and son-in-law Suzanne and Bob Donovan of Yreka, CA. Theresa was a lover of people and conservation. She volunteered her time and special abilities most of her life. Theresa has worked in numerous social service agencies, helping folks who require assistance with food, medical, home repair, yard maintenance and phone calls to shut in's. She loved working and playing at the Willamalane Senior Center in Springfield, OR. Her friends there meant the world to her. She documented over 4,000 Volunteer hours in her life and received several special Volunteer awards. She is also survived by her sisters, Louise Van Der Linden of Murrieta, CA. and Dorothy and Bill Raney of Livingston, MT. She was especially close to her niece, Diana and her husband Patrick McClain of Walport, OR., niece Dorene Kalien and her husband of Livingston, MT., and her nephew Eugene Raney of Livingston, MT. Along with numerous grand nieces and nephews. She also had several wonderful friends who gave her love and laughter in Springfield, her home for over 50 years. She will be greatly missed by all who loved her. Her last days were made peaceful and comfortable by the Angels at Madrone Hospice House in yreka, A 6 bed lovely home with 24 hour nursing. We will be forever grateful to

Suzanne, Terri, David, Sky, Laurie, and Von. God Bless You. Donations may be made to your local Hospice. Girdner Funeral Chapel is assisting the family. Online condolences may be made at girdnerfuneralchapel.com
