

Timothy Matthew Hofseth

March 1, 1960 - April 15, 2020

Timothy Matthew Hofseth, 60, of Grenada, passed away peacefully at his home, of natural causes on April 15, 2020.

Timothy was born to Olaf Christian Hofseth and Colleen Smith on March 1, 1960 at the Marine Core Air Station in Cherry Point, NC. There was an aerobatic demonstration by the “Blue Angels” taking place overhead.

Timothy attended Vallejo High School and later graduated from college with a masters degree in chemistry. Timothy went on to join the Dow Chemical Company as a research and development scientist. The last few years as a chemical specialist were spent working for a private company purifying water in Iraq and Afghanistan.

Timothy will be remembered for his kindness and generosity. Always encouraging family and friends to be positive. He knew that due to his health problems that his time was limited and he wished to spend his time helping others and working the land where he lived.

Timothy was a patriot and cheered on the USA. He followed politics and felt concern for the both the soldiers and civilian citizens. After his time overseas, Timothy was really happy just enjoying life, watching the birds, and spending long hours landscaping the family property.

He is survived by his parents, Olaf Hofseth and Colleen Smith, and sister;
Kirsten Hofseth
