

Timothy Lee Shipman

June 10, 1958 - October 20, 2015

Lifelong Siskiyou County resident Timothy Lee Shipman passed away October 20, 2015 at Fairchild Medical Center. He was 57 years old.

Tim was born on June 10, 1958 in Yreka to Ed and Priscilla Shipman. He graduated from Yreka High School and immediately started working in the woods as a logger, initially with Lucas Logging and finally with CLT Logging. He spent 40 years in the woods. He loved to duck hunt, and had shot his limit the weekend prior to his passing. He enjoyed golfing at the Lake Shastina Scottish Links, and was a member of the Siskiyou Bowmen.

Tim is survived by a stepson, Steven Fowler of Ellensburg, Washington; two brothers, Allen Shipman of Yreka and Tracy Shipman of Seattle, and two step grandchildren, Isabel and Ian Fowler.

Funeral services will be held on Saturday, October 24, 2015 at 2:00 PM at Girdner Funeral Chapel in Yreka.

“ Have so many wonderful memories of Tiim at family dinners and all the laughter! He was such a comfort to me, when we lost his uncle Donnie. There is such a void in the family and loss. We will all trust in the Lord to get through this time. Love, Aunt Susie
