

Vicki Ann Orr

February 13, 1947 - March 22, 2017

70 year old Fort Jones resident, Vicki Ann Orr, passed away peacefully on March 22, 2017 at her home while surrounded by family.

Vicki was born in Santa Rosa on February 13, 1947 to Edward Hafley and Margie James. She was raised by her mother and her father, Hap Haley. Vicki grew up in Dunsmuir, Happy Valley, and then spent the most time in the Redding area, where she graduated from Enterprise High School, and attended Shasta College. Vicki worked in the food and beverage industry, and worked for various locales, working her way from Hostess to the Banquet Supervisor at hotels such as The Sands in Reno.

Vicki loved reading, sewing, and crocheting. She won numerous awards for her crochet work, and she took her sewing talents and built motorcycle saddles for Russell Cycle Products. Vicki also loved gardening, and had a talent for growing anything out of everything; she collected trinkets, and she loved frogs, often being called “the Frog Lady.”

Vicki is preceded in death by three husbands, Dennis Pilkington, Joe Robinson, and Kenneth Orr. She is survived by her children, Terrill J. Pilkington of Redding, and Bobbi Pilkington of Fort Jones; her step children, Kenny, Kelly, and Keith Orr; her siblings, Deanna, Karen, Mike, James, and Shawn Haley; 7 grandchildren, and eight great-grandchildren, with a 9th on the way.

At the family's request, no services are to be held.
