

Wallace "Walt" Berton Taylor

July 11, 1937 - December 31, 2020

Wallace Berton "Walt" Taylor, 83, passed away peacefully at his home in Grenada with his wife by his side, to be with his Lord and Savior on December 31, 2020.

Born in Nampa, Idaho, Walt enjoyed the outdoors, especially hiking, hunting, and fishing. In later years you could find him either riding his favorite horse or having fun on his four-wheeler.

Walt was preceded in death by his parents, his first wife Loretta Taylor, and son Gregory Taylor.

Walt is survived by his loving wife of 26 years, Virginia Ann, and his daughters Lynnette (David) Cochran and Sheri (Thomas) Phillips, along with several grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

As per Walt's wishes, there will be no services held.

Tribute Wall

“ 2 files added to the album Obituary Wall

Girdner Funeral Chapel - April 27 at 04:12 PM

ES

“ Our heartfelt sympathy. So many fun memories of Walt, always a smile to share. We so enjoyed working with you both at Mercy Mt. Shasta years ago. Our love, Bob & Eileen Smith

Eileen Smith - January 25, 2021 at 12:00 AM

TT

“ Wallace "Walt" Berton Taylor

Theresa Thomas - January 17, 2021 at 12:00 AM

TT

“ ❤️🙏 very sweet remarks! Thank you! It's nice to read about how he adored my mom. ❤️

Theresa Thomas - January 17, 2021 at 12:00 AM

PP

“ I am so sorry to read about Walt. He was part of my work family as well as my friend. You will be missed Walt.

Pat Parkhurst - January 13, 2021 at 12:00 AM

TT

“Walt was a wonderful man and will be missed dearly by my mother, Virginia. We are grateful that they were together and that she was able to care for him in the months preceding his death. My favorite memories of Walt are seeing him riding horses or his quad around their property and hearing him tell stories of fun and adventures, like camping and riding roller coasters. Rest in peace.

---

Theresa Thomas - January 13, 2021 at 12:00 AM