

William "Cliff" Jones III

October 2, 1948 - August 16, 2015

William Clifford "Cliff" Jones III passed away on August 16, 2015 at his home in Happy Camp. He was 66 years old.

Cliff was born on October 2, 1948 in Newport News, Virginia to William Jones Jr. and Ruth Jones. He was raised in the Newport News area, and started working in the shipyards there. He received a bachelor's degree in engineering, and worked his way up to president of a metal manufacturing company in Florida. After he retired, he moved to Happy Camp. He loved gold mining and fishing, and won numerous bass fishing tournaments in Florida. He also enjoyed golf and tennis, and was a seven-time Virginia State Champion in tennis. Cliff was very loving and caring, and was a good husband, father, stepfather and grandfather.

Cliff is survived by his wife, Nicole "Sandy" Jones of Happy Camp; a son, Cameron Jones and his wife, Maria, of Palm Coast, Florida; a daughter, Tara Jones; and three grandchildren.

No services are scheduled.