

William Miller Cox

February 14, 1926 - February 23, 2013

William Miller Cox was born in Pope Valley, Russellville, Arkansas to Mr. and Mrs. William Newton Cox on February 14, 1926. He was one of the best Valentine gifts! Uncle Miller passed away on February 23, 2013 at 87 years old.

William grew up mostly in Arkansas with 9 siblings. He moved to California as a young man and started picking cotton. He was a hard worker and worked as a laborer in the cotton gin. He was the man inside the trailer that held the pipe the cotton was sucked up through. A job he held for over 40 years. Miller's passion on his days off from the farm were spent fishing.

He had wonderful nieces and nephews whom he love one just as much as the other. No one person will be named in this obituary as he loved them all. In Loving Memory of William Miller Cox

Today is not a day of grieving... Today is a day of remembering... Finally Uncle Miller isn't waiting... He caught that bus that's taking him to see our days out from above... With Grama and Grampa and also Uncle Billy. Uncle Miller you will be very much missed, But most of all, never forgotten. Most importantly, your family will love you always and forever. Life does go on in the after. RIP
