

Wilma F. Newton

April 17, 1942 - April 6, 2017

Wilma Newton, 74, of Montague passed away on April 6, 2017 in Yreka while surrounded by her family and friends.

Wilma F. Smith was born April 17, 1942 in Sanderson, Texas, to John C. and Florene Smith. The family moved to Siskiyou County in 1955. Wilma attended Mt. Shasta schools, and graduated from Mt. Shasta High School. Wilma married her husband of 58 years, Basil Newton, in 1959. Wilma and Basil made their home in Montague, where they raised their two daughters, Teresa and Terri.

Wilma was preceded in death by her brother, George Smith, mother Florene Smith, father John C. Smith, sister Betty Palkki, and sister Barcy Verner.

Wilma leaves behind her husband, Basil Newton of Montague; daughters, Teresa Newton of Montague and Terri (Kirk) Barham of Big Springs; several nieces and nephews, along with numerous friends.

Wilma requested no services. Instead, she asked that all who knew and loved her to plant a pink petunia.

Tribute Wall

CC

“ We will miss her humor and spunk. What a wonderful lady who touched our lives.

Colleen Cowley - April 19, 2017 at 09:29 PM

SJ

“ Wilma was a beautiful person! I will miss her very much!

Sara Jackson - April 19, 2017 at 09:25 PM

 Grace Leeman

“ Wilma always had the prettiest flowers on 4th Street. We'll honor your wishes, dear.

Grace Leeman - April 18, 2017 at 03:28 PM

LM

“ Will never forget Wilma and what a wonderful woman she was. There will be a pink petunia growing in North Carolina in her memory.

Laura Winje Medlin - April 18, 2017 at 03:39 AM

DE

“ She was amazing funny and I will never forget her so all the flowers in my yard this year will be pink.

Debi Egeline - April 17, 2017 at 10:37 PM

SD

“ I am so sorry to hear of Wilma's passing. I have fond memories of our families on three mile lane. May God Bless your family.

---

Susan Dickison - April 17, 2017 at 05:20 PM

 Vicki Currie

“ Vicki Currie lit a candle in memory of Wilma F. Newton

---

Vicki Currie - April 17, 2017 at 02:27 PM